Basic Life Support (BLS) and First Aid

G.Pulla Reddy College of Pharmacy, in collaboration with AIG Hospital Gachibowli, Hyderabad, conducted a comprehensive training program on Basic Life Support (BLS) and First Aid for Pharm D students on 27th June 2023. The program was divided into two sessions, with each session accommodating 50 students.

The training encompassed practical exercises, focusing on cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR), as well as providing instruction on various first aid techniques for handling situations such as animal bites, trauma, dehydration, cardiac problems, breathlessness, and workplace injuries. Leading the training were Dr. Sravani, a critical care consultant, and Mr. Prashanth, an emergency technician, both from AIG Hospital.

The event was coordinated by Mr. Srikanth M, Mr. Venkat, and Mr. Amit Choudhary from AIG Hospital, ensuring the smooth execution of the training program. This training was organized for the Pharm D department by Prof. Dr. P.K. Lakshmi. Assisting in the coordination of the event were Ms. Sruthi, Ms. Sarika, Ms. Archana, and Mr. Naveen Kumar, Assistant Professors from the department.

At the culmination of the program, all participating students and staff were presented with certificates of participation, recognizing their successful completion of the training program.
