

65 th Indian Pharmaceutical congress (IPC) was held at Amity university, Delhi NCR from Dec 20 th – 23 rd 2013. Hosted by IPGA. Theme of the conference: Pharmavision 2020 – Empowering pharmacist. Dr. Y. Padmavathi and six students of pharmaceutical analysis and quality assurance department attended the conference and presented two posters with titles “Development of fixed dose combination suppositories containing stavudine, lamivudine and nevirapine for pediatric applications” and “ New spectrophotometric method for determination of voriconazole using hydrotrophy technique”.